Learn the basics of anticipation, recognition, diagnosis, treatment and prevention of occupational and environmental injuries and illnesses within rural and agricultural communities.

Approved for 6.5 of Veterinary CE.
CME & CNE pending.

♦ $125 for physicians, nurses, healthcare professionals, veterinarians, health educators & public health professionals
♦ $75 for residents or students

Register online at http://bit.ly/2014TRHA.

The Agromedicine Workshop will be held in conjunction with the Texas Rural Health Association Conference.